

Salon International 2011

A Juried Exhibition of Oil Paintings • Seeking & Promoting Artistic Excellence
A Project of the International Museum of Contemporary Masters
Hosted by Greenhouse Gallery of Fine Art

PROSPECTUS

PLEASE READ THE ENTIRE PROSPECTUS CAREFULLY

About the Exhibition

This juried exhibition is a project of the International Museum of Contemporary Masters and will be hosted by Greenhouse Gallery of Fine Art in San Antonio, Texas. 2011 Exhibit Dates are April 2 - 22. Deadline for entries is January 21, 2011.

About the Museum

The International Museum of Contemporary Masters (IMCM), founded in 2001, is a support system for traditional representational artists. It CHALLENGES artists to always strive for a higher level of artistic excellence and is totally dedicated to the recognition, encouragement and support of contemporary, currently active, artists of traditional representational art worldwide. The word “contemporary” in the museum’s name is to be read “of our times” and refers to currently living and active artists. IMCM is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that is incorporated in the State of Texas. More information is available at www.imcm.org.

About the Host Gallery

Greenhouse Gallery of Fine Art is one of the most respected galleries in the United States and has been in existence for over 28 years. In August 2005, the gallery relocated to a new 12,000 sq ft. space, three times larger than the original location. While the gallery can easily accommodate 500 paintings, approximately 300 paintings will be juried into this exhibition.

About the Jury

The owners of Greenhouse Gallery of Fine Art, Jim Janes and Mark Smith will jury the entries. These gentlemen are responsible for the curating of the work displayed at Greenhouse Gallery and are respected throughout the art community for their curating abilities. The decision of the jury is final. There will be no refund of entry fees for unaccepted entries. Participants will be notified promptly of the jurors’ selections by mail, email and a posting on the Salon International website at <http://si.greenhousegallery.com>

About the Judge

Daniel E. Greene, N.A. is considered one of the foremost realist painters of our time. His pastels and oil paintings have earned him countless awards and honors, and his work is included in collections throughout the world. Among many accolades, he was elected to the National Academy of Design in 1969, elected to the Pastel Society of America’s Pastel Hall of Fame in 1983, and received lifetime achievement awards from the American Society of Portrait Artists, the Portrait Society of America, and American Artist magazine. Dan is also known as a thorough and generous instructor, as evidenced by his art instruction books and DVDs. He continues to teach workshops at his North Salem, New York, studio. To learn more, visit his website at www.danielgreeneartist.com.

Shipping

Artists pay for shipping and insurance both ways. We recommend that you make arrangements to insure your work for its full value. Shipments from OUTSIDE the United States must be shipped “Free Domicile” or they WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

Liabilities and Responsibilities

Greenhouse Gallery of Fine Art and/or the International Museum of Contemporary Masters will not be responsible for loss or damage of any artwork, no matter what the cause. By submitting artwork to this exhibition, each artist agrees to this statement. Artwork is not insured while in the possession of Greenhouse Gallery of Fine Art.

ABOUT THE AWARDS – Total Awards Value: $30,000 (More Awards Are Expected)

All awards will be conferred based upon the merits of the paintings as judged by the awarding judges. It is possible that not all awards will be given if the awarding judge feels that there is not a suitable winner in any given award category. The judges' decisions are final. This list represents the known awards at the time of printing this prospectus. It is likely that other awards will be available as other third party sponsors underwrite additional awards.	Award Name	Awarding Judge	Award
